Zsolnay Cultural Quarter

Producing ceramics made Zsolnay family known not only in Hungary, but all over the world; they established their ceramics and porcelain manufacture in Pécs in 1853. The heritage of their ceramic factory used to operate here has been revived and lives on with a new content here, in the Zsolnay Cultural Quarter. The Quarter hosts several unique exhibitions presenting the Zsolnay heritage. In the open-view manufacture, visitors can follow the process of ceramics production live, at the same time they can learn about traditional products of Pécs, such as the famous Pécs gloves.

ESSENTIAL INFORMATION

Post

Post palace Main Post office in Pécs and also a very unique building. It is unlikely that Pécs will ever have a more eclectic building. Besides the canopy figures evoking Gothic and French Renaissance style motifs, Secession appears as well.

Naturally, the glazed coat-of-arms, the reliefs and the roof tiles decorating the apex of the facade were produced by the Zsolnay factory. The building was built between 1902 and 1904, and has been in operation ever since.
