zefart/Shutterstock.com

Skopje is internationally famous for being the birthplace of Mother Teresa, and much in that spirit is the welcoming, hospitable attitude that Skopje locals demonstrate towards visitors. Despite the recent political turmoil in the Balkans, Skopje has blossomed into a thriving, stimulating city to explore, defining itself as an exciting tourist destination.

THE CITY

zefart/Shutterstock.com

Skopje was an Ottoman city for 5 centuries, which is evident in its magnificent architecture and sumptuous cuisine. It is divided by the River Vardar into the predominantly Muslim half north of the river, to the mostly Christian Orthodox side to the south of the river. There has been a large influx of foreigners since the NATO intervention into Kosovo, which adds to the cosmopolitan allure of the city.

Skopje is a lively, young city with lots of fun loving folk who like to be out, whether it's at cafés, bars and clubs socializing with friends, or in active outdoor pursuits. Skopje has numerous dance clubs for a small city, which speaks to its spirit and energy. There are also a wide range of outdoor activities, from horse riding to rock climbing to keep every type of visitor entertained.

ESSENTIAL INFORMATION

Klemen Mistic/Shutterstock.com

Passport/Visa

Macedonia can be visited visa-free for up to 90 days by citizens of Australia, New Zealand, Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, Israel, UAE and most countries in America. If you are unsure whether or not you need to apply for a visa, we recommend contacting the embassy or consulate in your country. International (non-Schengen) travelers need a passport that is valid for at least 3 months after the end of their intended trip in order to enter the Schengen zone. Citizens of Schengen countries can travel without a passport, but must have a valid ID with them during their stay.

Airport - Skopje Alexander the Great

Skopje Alexander the Great Airport is Skopje's only international airport and is located 21 km east of the city centre in Petrovec Municipality.

Vardar Ekspres transport company offers bus connection to several locations in the city and buses run all day. They have an information desk at the airport.

Many hotels offer a pickup service from the airport, so check to see if it is possible to arrange this through your hotel. If you do take a taxi, be certain that it is a taxi with an official sign. There are however, taxi cars (all in white and taxi sign numbered from 1 to 65) which are the only authorized taxis to transport passengers from the airport. They are parked at the exit of the airport building 24 hours a day.

If you want to rent a car, there are 14 car rental agencies located at the airport.

Best time to Visit

The best time to visit Skopje is in the spring, summer and in the autumn when you can experience welcoming weather. The climate in the city is dry in general. In the spring and in the autumn the average temperature is 20°C and in the summer it reaches over 30°C.

Public Transport

There are two main bus stations in Skopje, the New Intercity Bus Station (Nova Avtobuska Stanica) and the Kale Bus Station. Both the inner city and the suburban buses have various stops throughout the city. The schedule can be a bit confusing, so it is best to ask for directions on which bus to take from your hotel or tourist information. The contact below refers to the New Station.
