Tricity is a special complex of three different urban bodies connected by their unique location on Gdańsk Bay (Zatoka Gdańska) and separated from the rest of the World by post-glacial moraines. Gdańsk is a thousand years old, and is the capital of the Pomeranian Voivodeship with high architectural and cultural values, joined with Sopot, the most famous health resort and spa, which is located next to Gdynia, a modernistic, cutting-edge city. The three cities are connected by a fast railway line, offering combined leisure and cultural packages and shopping bargains. It is well connected to land, air and sea transport and affords lots of attractions and a unique climate.

THE CITY

Artur Bociarski/Shutterstock.com

Gdansk

During its over a thousand-year-long history, the city of Gdańsk has witnessed events that changed the world. It is the place where, on 1 September 1939, the event that changed the world started - World War II. At the same time, Gdańsk is the birthplace of Solidarity, the social movement that led to the fall of communism.

Sopot

Sopot is a famous health resort and spa. The city never sleeps, with artistes, scientists and tourists mixing around the clock. Sopot hosts various events such as exhibitions, concerts, festivals, conferences and international meetings. The streets are crowded with cafes, restaurants, and art galleries; the beach, visible from various points in the city, offers a pleasant alternative to Gdynia and Gdańsk. It is a place to relax after a long day.

Gdynia

Gdynia was created from the sea and dreams of the post-war generation of Poles, according to the words of Stefan Żeromski, the Polish writer of the times, "...a poem created in wood, stone, concrete and iron, an overwhelming drama depicting the taking from the sea of the forces of water, depth and power...". Today it is a modern and dynamically growing city with its modern development and economy, open towards the sea.

DO & SEE

Artur Bociarski/Shutterstock.com

Most tourist attractions are in the Main Town along or near Ulica Długa (Long Street) and Długi Targ (Long Market), a pedestrian thoroughfare surrounded by buildings reconstructed in historical (primarily 17th century) style and book-ended by elaborate city gates.

Great Crane (Zuraw)

This is Gdansk's most famous landmark, a crane that was used to lift heavy goods and place masts onto ships' decks. Today, it houses a branch of the city's maritime museum in the crane.

SHOPPING

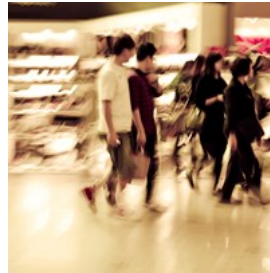

Kamil Macniak/Shutterstock.com

Gdansk is a holiday shopper's paradise as there are plenty of stores in the downtown area as well as a couple of quality shopping malls. Ulica Mariacka - which is known as one of the most beautiful streets in Europe - has many cosy shops and hidden treasures.

If the weather turns you, and you're looking to spend some quality indoor time, there is a shopping mall in the Great Mill building on Ulica Wielkie Mlyny that is great for buying those inevitable souvenirs and trinkets for friends and family. Another, larger shopping mall is on Ulica Rajska, called Madison Park. It has more than 100 stores, including tourist information, fashion stores, a gym and a medical centre.

For a change of pace, check out the little shops in seaside spa resort Sopot or the exclusive boutiques of thriving port town Gdynia.

ESSENTIAL INFORMATION

Beas777/Shutterstock.com

Passport / Visa

Poland can be visited visa-free for up to 90 days by citizens of Australia, New Zealand, Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, Malaysia, Israel, UAE and most countries in America. If you are unsure whether or not you need to apply for a visa, we recommend contacting the embassy or consulate in your country. International (non-Schengen) travelers need a passport that is valid for at least 3 months after the end of their intended trip in order to enter the Schengen zone. Citizens of Schengen countries can travel without a passport, but must have a valid ID with them during their stay.

Best Time to Visit

The summer months, June through August, are the high season, which means both warm temperatures and larger amounts of tourists. To escape the slew of visitors, plan your trip for just before

(May) or just after (September) the peak season, when temperatures are still pleasant but the area significantly less crowded.

Gdansk Lech Walesa - Airport

Gdansk Lech Walesa Airport is about 10 kilometres from downtown Gdansk. It also serves Gdynia and Sopot, as well as the rest of the Pomeranian region. City bus line 210 will get you to the city in about 35-50 minutes. Tickets are PLN 3,40 one way and are bought at news stands or from the driver. There is also an airport shuttle bus (MPA Poland) that takes travellers directly in to the city centre. The journey takes about 25-30 minutes and tickets can be bought on the bus.

A taxi rank is situated outside the arrivals hall. A cab ride to the city will set you back slightly more during the nighttime. Beware of private cabs! Stick with taxis that have telephone numbers on the sides and a big light on the roof.

You'll also find rental car agencies in the arrivals hall.

Public Transport

The ZTM operates Gdansk's local transport system, which consists of tram and bus lines.

Tickets can be bought from the drivers or in vending machines and the fares are either based upon number of journeys or travel time so you have to estimate how long your trip will take before buying a ticket. If you're planning a busy day of sightseeing in the city, splurge on a day travel ticket (valid on all trams, buses and night buses for 24 hours). Don't forget to validate your ticket by sticking it in one of the orange or brown boxes located all around the stations or on the bus or tram.

Commuter rail SKM is a good way to travel between Gdansk, Gdynia and Sopot. Trains leave from Gdansk's main train station, Gdansk Glowny.
