Have you ever had occasion to fall in love with a city? If not, Poznan will take your heart with its unique treasures, which stand dreamily watching their own reflections in the fast flowing Warta River. Here, history and tradition interweave with modernity offering you everything from bustling tourist attractions to idyllic hideaways. The city is perfect for romantic getaways. Even if you walk the cobble streets alone, you will be swept away by the magic that has given Poznan a reputation for being Poland's most popular small-big city.

THE CITY

Paweł Florczyk

On the right bank of the river you will find a city rich with history. The old Ostrów Tumski dates back to the 10th century and the birth of Poland, and if you head to the cathedral you will find, within its cool walls, the tombs of the first Polish kings.

Cross over to the left bank of the Warta and you will come across crowds of students visiting the Old Town Square with its Renaissance Town Hall and colourful buildings with ornamental trimmings. If you look up at the Town Hall at noon you will see two little goats skip out of the tower clock. This will not mean you have had too much beer, it is merely one of Poznań's famous children's attractions.

FOR KIDS

Malta Ski

Poznań is a great place to visit with your kids. They can enjoy a wide range of activities.

Porta Posnania

Porta Posnania is the introduction to a visit to the Cathedral Island in Poznań - an island where you experience the beginnings of Polish statehood first hand. Porta Posnania is a modern center of heritage interpretation. The exhibition and various events at Porta Posnania restore and rediscover the meaning of the oldest part of Poznań to Polish identity.

EVENTS

Szymon Sobczak

Maybe you've already wondered what the festivals in Poznań can be like? Well they surely do differ one from the other, they deal with different topics and different art forms, however a common demeanor is the unique atmosphere that they offer. Attending some of them might be similar to an exotic journey, yet all of them are a good excuse to additionally discover Poznań and the diverse facets that the city has to offer. Each of the events listed is organized yearly so don't worry about missing out on anything.

Malta Festival Poznań

Poznań Malta Festival is the biggest and the most famous festival that is organized in Poznań. It started out as a festival to promote street theater and street art. Back in the day most shows took place at Malta Lake, located in the center of the city, that's where the Festival gets its name from. With time due to its popularity and great reputation the festival expanded and became one of the most influential festivals in Europe dedicated to performative art forms. For a number of years now each edition has had a main topic around which the whole festival revolves. Examples for these topics are: Asia, South America, Man & Machine.

CULTURE

Kino Rialto

Poznan is a great place for culture lovers. If you're lucky, you can take part in one of many great festivals. If there's no festivals when you visit Poznan, don't worry! You can still enjoy a great concert, a theatrical performance or an exhibition. You can find several art-houses in Poznan, where you can enjoy selected movies.

Grand Theater

Many performances with high critical praise and excellent audience reception in and outside Poland appeared in the repertoire of Teatr Wielki.

For the theater now is the time of new artistic challenges, including many co-productions with famous world opera stages. The auditorium able to hold little under a thousand viewers, is often filled to the last seat during the performances. The current repertoire is available on Teatr Wielki's website.

Polish Theater

The oldest theater in Poznań, operating continually in its original building, established in 1875. The theater was an essential part of the task of keeping the spirit of Polishness alive, being the only steady stage where performances were shown in Polish. Teatr Polski (the Polish Theater) offers first performances of Polish and foreign plays, as well as modern takes on national and worlds literary classics. It presents small-cast performances of contemporary modern drama. Currently Teatr Polski houses three stages - Duża Scena (the Big Stage), Malarnia and Galeria. The two smaller ones ensure close contact with the performers, whose emotions can be seen in large closeup.

Pierozak

The Pierozak is a nice little place on ulica Wrocławska, located just two minutes walk from the Old Market Square. Only dumplings made on the spot are served here. The open kitchen space allows you to follow the life of the dumplings from its birth, until the tasty finale on our fork. Dumplings can be bought on pieces, mixing the fillings available on the menu. The offer includes traditional fillings, both sweet and dry as well as seasonal experiments. At the time of serving, we only wait for the cooking of raw dumplings, that is several minutes. There is no problem with buying take away dumplings. Undoubtedly, this is one of the best pierogi of Poznań. We recommend!

Gołe Baby

Gołe Baby could appear and disappear after a few months, as many other unnoticed burger bars. Meanwhile, the restaurant quickly came to the awareness of foodies. This is a repeated recommendation. The restaurant offers six different burgers and four ways to serve French fries. Is this combination a revolution? It looks. This shows that the culinary horizon is still a lot, you just have to ... serve tasty and repeatable food. Big congratulations!

Castle in Kórnik

The beginnings of the Kórnik castle go back to the 15th century. Its current neo-Gothic form stems from the mid-19th century. Its interiors are filled with antique furniture from various styles and times, paintings and sculptures by Polish and European masters, antique coins, military accessories, and an ethnographic collection. A real gem is the library from 1828, with a unique collection of around 400 thousand volumes. Legend has it, that at night the castle is haunted by the ghost of Biała Dama - the White Lady.

The Kórnik Arboretum

The famous Kórnik castle is surrounded by an expansive park. It is the largest and oldest arboretum in Poland, and its history goes back to the mid-18th century. Around 3 thousand species and varieties of trees and bushes can be found here - the oldest being the 300-year-old lime trees. The park is at its most charming in the springtime, when the magnolias, the azaleas and the rhododendrons are in full bloom. Even the proverbial "gruszki na wierzbie" (pears on a willow) can be seen among them.

Museum Palace in Rogalin

One of the most impressive aristocratic residences in Poland is located in Rogalin. The 18th century, late-Baroque palace hosts the museum of the Raczyński family, as well as a carriage house, a painting gallery and a church from 1820, stylised as a Roman temple. The palace is surrounded by a park with the largest concentration of oak trees in Middle-Eastern Europe, whose history dates back nearly 700 years - the most famous of which are Lech, Czech and Rus.
