THE CITY

Rzeszów - the largest city of south-eastern Poland, the capital of Podkarpackie Province and the centre of the Rzeszow Metropolitan Area. The seat of local government and province authorities, governmental and judicial institutions. It constitutes the economic, academic, cultural and recreational centre of south-eastern Poland. It serves as an important centre for aerospace, IT, chemical, commercial, construction and service industries.

The capital of Podkarpackie Province has nearly 220 thousand inhabitants. In terms of number of students Rzeszow places first in the European Union (for every 1000 inhabitants there are 353 students). The average age of the inhabitants of the city is 39, so Rzeszow is often called the city of the young. Rzeszow is a place highly valued by its residents in terms of quality of life. They openly acknowledge that it is a clean, safe, convenient city, which provides life-time stability and satisfaction coming from personal and professional development.

Rzeszow is the seat of the Aviation Valley, the biggest aviation cluster in Poland, with more than 150 companies representing the industry. The largest plant is Pratt & Whitney Rzeszow (formerly WSK „PZL-Rzeszow”), specializing in the production of aircraft engines. The chemical industry - ICN Polfa, Sanofi-Aventis, IT sector -

Asseco Poland SA as well as packaging - Marma Polskie Folie, are also developing in the city. In Rzeszow, companies like Zelmer and Nestle (formerly Alima-Gerber) also have their headquarters.

In Rzeszow there are two volleyball clubs with men’s team - Asseco Resovia Rzeszow and women’s team - Developers Rzeszow, which in 2017 won the bronze medal in the Poland’s championship competition. Asseco Resovia Rzeszow is a seven-time Polish champion, three-time Polish Cup winner and a Polish Super Cup winner. Volleyball has become a „national sport” in Rzeszow, matches taking place in the Regional sports and Entertainment Centre Jan Strzelczyk „Podpromie” are attended by nearly 4,000 supporters. Thanks to planned extension of the hall, it will soon be able to accommodate 7 thousand spectators. Another sport that is of great importance for the capital of Podkarpackie Province is speedway. Speedway races have taken place at the „Stal” City Stadium in Rzeszow since the 1950s. Speedway Stal Rzeszow has won the title of Polish Champion twice.

Rzeszow is a place of numerous festivals and cultural events. The World Festival of Polish Folk Ensembles organized here every three years since 1969 has been permanently incorporated into the cultural map of the city. During the festival, troupes from all over the world come to Rzeszow. Another significant festival is the Rzeszow Carpathia Festival , which has been organized since 2005. During the four days of the festival, young singers and music bands present their skills. The East of Culture festival - European Stadium of Culture, which takes place yearly by the end of June. As part of the festival, we could see and listen to such stars as Guano

Apes, White Lies, The Fratellis, Coma, T.Love, Myslovitz and many others. The biggest audience is attracted by collective concertists - joint performances of Polish bands with guests from the east, from such countries as Ukraine, Belarus or Armenia.

ACCESSIBILITY

The city is easily accessible, thanks to the A4 highway (east-west) and S19 expressway (north-south). These routes enable you to reach Western Europe as well as the Ukrainian border (border crossing in Korczowa) and Slovakia (border crossing in Barwinek).

Recently deployed Intelligent Transport System and extensive road network enable smooth commuting around the city. The convenient location of the city, right at the crossroads of important transport routes, and the proximity of Poland's southern and eastern borders intensify its significance as a transport node, and is favourable to the development of economy, tourism and trade. Rzeszow features modern means of public transport. For ticket information, see page 72 .

The Rzeszow-Jasionka International Airport, which has the second longest runway in Poland, where even the largest airplanes can land, provides passengers with direct flights to London, Munich and Warsaw.

DO & SEE

BestPhotoStudio / Shutterstock.com

The close proximity to the Carpathian mountain range grants a rare beauty to the area, and there are many outdoor activities to explore. But you cannot neglect the charming Old Town and the vibrancy of this city. Admire historical landmarks, like the Lubomirski Palace, the two synagogues and the stunning market square, or visit some of the city's fine museums.

The Market Square

The central square of the Old Town is the Market Square with the Town Hall and a well from the 17th century. The present Market is slightly different from the original 15th-century appearance - only the three frontages are built-up with tenement houses that have undergone reconstruction over the centuries.

There are hotels, restaurants, clubs, pubs, museums and various institutions. One of the more interesting is the tenement house No. 19. The fragments of brick-stone walls and Gothic arches and lintels discovered in the basement that can be seen in the Underground Tourist Route, date back to the beginning of the 15th and 16th centuries. On summer evenings, near the Town Hall you can watch the performances of famous singers, music and vocal groups and dance troupes.

The Fara Church

ST.STANISLAUS AND ST. WOJCIECH FARA CHURCH The church probably existed before 1363, but it was destroyed during the great fire. Only the Gothic presbytery, dating back to the beginning of the 15th century, remained. In the first half of the 17th century a belfry was erected, and in 1754 the main aisle was rebuilt, lateral aisles were added and it was given a baroque décor. In the chancel there are gravestones of the Rzeszów's families. In the years 1962-1965 a thorough restoration of the church took place.

Address: Square Farny 5, Rzeszów

3 MAJA STREET

The oldest street in Rzeszów's old town, at the same time the most representative. There is the fara church, the Piarist convent, the statue of Tadeusz Nalepa, many dining options, "Zorza" cinema - the oldest cinema in the city. The street before the partitions was called Pijarska. On the map from 1826 it is listed as Expiaristengasse, or popijarska, but two years later it was already known as Herrengasse - Pańska street. In the interwar period, despite having the official name of "3 Maja" it was called "Pańska" and also "Paniega".

After the renovation in 2017, the street gained a pre-war look. As a result of the archaeological work carried out at the house No. 14, a window of time has been created showing how the street surface has changed over the centuries.

Address: Rzeszów, 3 maja street

The Piarist Monastery

The Piarist Convention included a church, a monastery and a school. The postpiarist complex features the church of St. Cross in the centre, built between 1644-1649 according to the design of Tylman of Gameren. It is a one-nave temple with two towers in the facade and a chapel on the north side. Late baroque decor with stucco decorations by Jan Ch. Falconi from the end of the 17th century. In the chancel, at the entrance to the sacristy, there is a mausoleum of the Lubomirskis family.

In the monastery building there is now the Regional Museum, with rich collections in the fields of art, history, ethnography and archaeology, exhibited in the form of permanent exhibitions (e.g. Galeria Dąbskich) or temporary exhibitions. In the old refectory you can see frescoes from the end of the 17th century.

The Piarists founded the Collegium Ressoviense next to the monastery in 1658. Fr. Stanisław Konarski taught here - currently the patron of Secondary School No. 1. The school is one of the oldest in Poland. Many of its students were glorified on the pages of Polish history and in culture. Ignacy Łukasiewicz, Jozef S. Pelczar, Władysław Sikorski, Władysław Szafer or Julian Przyboś.

The Lubomirski Summer Palace

The Lubomirski Summer Palace was built by the efforts of Hieronim A. Lubomirski, and designed by Tylman of Gameren. Located in close proximity to the Lubomirski Castle, it has undergone many redevelopments over the centuries. It has not retained its original architecture, nor the baroque gardens that used to be around it. The District Medical Chamber is located here nowadays.

Art Nouveau Villas

There are Art Nouveau Villas at al. Pod Kasztanami: No. 6 - built in 1903, designed by eng. K. Hołubowicz, eclectic, with a rich facade and a bust of A. Mickiewicz in the niche; and two Swissstyle villas, designed by T. M. Tekielski: No. 8 (1899) and No. 10 (1900), called Pod Sową, on which there is a sundial with the sentence: You see the hour, yet you do not know the hour.

The Lubomirski Castle

The construction of the castle was started at the end of the 16th century by the contemporary owner of Rzeszów - Nicholas Spytek Ligęza.

In the second half of the 17th century the Lubomirskis expanded the castle and encamped it with a stone wall with bastions.

It owes its current appearance to the last redevelopment performed at the turn of the 19th and 20th century. At present, the castle houses the District Court. Transformation of the castle into a cultural institution is being planned at the moment.

Round Footbridge

Round footbridge is the only object of this type in Europe. In addition to its innovative shape, it is distinguished by the selection of finishing materials: specially bent and hardened glass, elevator shafts, exotic wood, resistant to changing weather conditions alongside illumination of the whole object.

This unique structure was created over the intersection of al. Piłsudskiego and Grunwaldzka St.- one of the most frequented places of the main communication artery in Rzeszów. Thanks to its location, the footbridge provides an excellent viewpoint.

Address: Grunwaldzka 34, 35-001 Rzeszów

Bernardine Monastery Complex

Bernardine monastery with The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Church was established in the first half of the 17th century. Originally it was the site of a wooden church, built in 1536. In the chancel there are gravestones of the Ligęza family.

At the Shrine of Our Lady of Rzeszów - Patroness of Rzeszow - there is a late Gothic figurine of Our Lady with the Child from 1513. In 2008 the church received the title of Minor Basilica.

At the foot of the Monastery there are Bernardine Gardens arranged in Italian style. They are open every day 7:00-21:00.

EVENTS

Due to its geographical position, Polish cuisine has absorbed the influences of the cultures and countries surrounding it and transformed them into distinctive national flavours. The cold winter climate has also played its part, creating a menu that is hearty and filling. The typical Polish diet therefore consists of thick soups such as Zurek and Bigos, a sauerkraut-based stew. A combination of meat is a particular favourite and is usually accompanied by the other staples of Polish cuisine like root vegetables, bread or dumplings.

The European Stadium of Culture

The European Stadium of Culture is currently the most important cultural event of Rzeszow. The European Stadium of Culture - the East of Culture has taken place every June since 2011. It was launched in connection with the Euro 2012 Football Championship. Since 2013, it has been implemented using a new formula under the project EAST OF CULTURE, with the involvement of three cities - Rzeszow, Lublin, Bialystok.

EAST OF CULTURE is the largest undertaking of its kind in Poland consolidating the activities of three cities into one coherent project, using the best traditions of the cultures of the east and the west.

There are about 40 different events, including concerts, exhibitions, shows, film presentations, workshops, and meetings.

At the main concert over the last three years the city of Rzeszow was visited by the following bands: White Lies, Kayah, Jamal, The Fratellis, Kasia Kowalska, Patrycja Markowska, Within Temptation, Skubas and Jono McCleery from Great Britain, Sarsa and Green Room & Dato Lomidze from Georgia. Piotr Rogucki, Kortez, Guano Apes, guitarist Dean Brown, Hey, Voo Voo, Julia Marcell and many more.

Paniaga Festival

Paniaga Festival is one of the favourite cultural events in Rzeszow, taking place during the May 3rd Constitution Day. 3 Maja Street, formerly Pańska Street, is one of the most important and oldest streets of Rzeszow, once used to be called the Paniaga. Uninterruptedly since the 14th century, it has been the centre of the city and the place of cultural events. Starting from 2003, May 3 celebrates not only the adoption of the Constitution, but also the Paniaga Festival, the favourite pedestrian promenade in Rzeszow. During the event 3 Maja street is full of life, offering numerous attractions such as outdoor exhibitions, dance shows, movies, food tastings, and concerts on several stages set in the city centre.

The traditional feature of the Paniaga Festival is a handicraft and regional products fair, as well as an opera concert, which is presented every year on the Rzeszow Market Square.

Maskarada - Festival of Theatres

Review of the most interesting theatres performances of recent years. The main goal of "Maskarada" is to discover the variety of masks which present-day theatres put on.

The festival provides performances for children and adults, big plenary session as well as small, cosy plays, performances based on motion and those with text as the most important part. At the same time. Beside the theatre performances there are organized theatre workshops.

13 - 20 MAY

Urban Space Festival

The City Space Festival is an opportunity to talk about the social and spatial development of contemporary Rzeszów. Every year the event is organized in another, surprising place, which is specially adapted for the festival.

Every year different space and place are chosen to locate the festival, sometimes it is Industrial sites, atypical or otherwise - known and popular, but for the duration of the Festival those places change their face and are used differently than on a daily basis.

This idea serves to revitalize and tame urban space, and to make citizens to look at the city from a different perspective than usual. The program includes lectures, workshops, presentations, installations, films, concerts and other cultural.

The Festival is an event that integrates the local community, giving a real opportunity to discuss the condition of the city and its impact on its development.

Szajna Gallery

On 13 March 1997, at the 75th anniversary of his birth and the 50th anniversary of creative work of the world-famous theatre producer and an artist - Professor Jozef Szajna, the adapted attic of the theatre saw the opening of the gallery of the artist's works.

It is the only exhibition of Professor Jozef Szajna's works in Poland and in the world, one of the most important artists of the 20th century. All the works that can be seen in the Gallery are gifts from Professor to Rzeszow - the city where he was born.

Jozef Szajna's body of work is shown in terms of aesthetic transformations, hence we can admire here paintings and objects, puppets, drawings and collages created during various periods of the artist's life. There are 54 works in the gallery: monumental paintings, drawings, collages, spatial compositions and stage design items from Szajna's most outstanding theatrical performances.

The exhibition is a retrospective presentation of the artist's work. Next to the works shown at many prestigious exhibitions in Poland and abroad, there are new exhibitions from the last period of his work. Since its inception, the Gallery has been a meeting place for artists representing various fields: artists, writers, musicians, theatre people.

Ethnographic Museum in Rzeszow

The Franciszek Kotula Ethnographic Museum - Branch of the Regional Museum in Rzeszow documents all the manifestations of life of the old inhabitants of the countryside.

The Museum collection contains not only agricultural tools and household items, but also women's and men's outfits worn by Lesioki, Rzeszowiacy and Pogorzanie. Here are numerous exhibits representing the former inhabitants of the village. Museum collection is enriched with source documents and ritual attributes. Also, the collection of folk instruments, often made by country musicians themselves, is of great historical value. The archives of the history of folk culture constitute an integral part of the Museum.

Cocina Verde

Cocina Verde is a special place on the city map. It is created by a group of enthusiasts who want to share their experience in the field of ethical and healthy nutrition. We are vegetarian and vegan with many years of experience. We have resigned from animal products for ethical reasons. In addition to ethics, our choice is also driven by health.

In our kitchen we use only top-shelf ingredients. Unmodified and unimproved.

We also try to meet the needs of people with intolerance to gluten, lactose and sugar. There is a noble purpose behind of our motto "Let food be medicine and medicine be food"

We offer pizza, bread, sweets, natural drinks, juices and certified alcohol of the highest quality. All our pastries are made of spelled flour or gluten-free flour. Cocina Verde is an ideal place for people with intolerance to gluten and celiac disease, as well as vegetarians and vegans.

We don't like monotony, that's why our menu is being improved and changed constantly.

We are opened every day from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. and in the summer to 10 p.m.

We guarantee an unforgettable taste experience.

Schronisko PTSM "A youth Hostel"

Youth Hostel PTSM is based in Rzeszów at the Old Square in historic tenement "Alko", in which before the Second World War around 1920, there was a vodka, cognac, rosolis, wine, honey and juice factory.

Original bottles and labels from that period have been preserved and are kept in a shelter. The building with a modest classicist façade comes from the end of the 17th century, and was expanded in the 19th century.

The reception of the hostel is located on the ground floor in a room with a barrel vault, and on the first and second floor there are accommodation rooms.
