THE CITY

Uppsala is a small city that features the amenities and pulse of a large city combined with the peace and intimacy of a town. You can stroll along the pedestrianized streets lined by an array of shops, or browse around the little boutiques of the old town.

Relax with a glass of wine at a lounge bar or with a coffee alongside the River Fyris. Savour some delicious sandwiches and sumptuous bakery goods at trendy and stylishly-decorated cafés.

Experience the bustling trade at Saluhallen and the tranquillity of the Botanical Garden, or enjoy the view from the Uppsala Konsert & Kongress and feel the presence of the city's enthralling history through the Museum Gustavianum, Uppsala Castle and Gamla Uppsala.

Enjoy the culture and international atmosphere of the 'Culture Night', the Uppsala International Guitar Festival, or another of the many other events taking place.

Uppsala can be reached by train from Stockholm in just 40 minutes, while it takes just 18 minutes from Arlanda Airport. Uppsala: Close to everything since 1286.

TOP 10

Niklas Lundengård / Destination Uppsala

Uppsala is a beautiful city with many things to see. Whether your interests are art, nature or history, Uppsala has a huge selection of definite "must-sees" to offer you.

Uppsala Cathedral

Uppsala domkyrka (Uppsala Cathedral) is the largest and tallest cathedral in Scandinavia. Construction began around 1270, with consecration taking place in 1435. The cathedral has undergone several major renovations. Sweden left the Roman Catholic Church in the 1500s and this had a major impact on the appearance of the cathedral during various periods.

The cathedral's treasures include the reliquary shrine of Erik the Holy and a pulpit from the Baroque period. The Skattkammaren (Treasury) museum is situated in the cathedral's north tower and is home to one of Europe's finest collections of medieval church fabrics.

Uppsala Castle

Uppsala Castle, which began construction in 1549 during the reign of King Gustav Vasa, played a central role in the history of both Uppsala and Sweden over a long period of time. Many crucial events in Swedish history took place here, such as the Sture Murders in 1567, and the decision by Gustav II Adolf that Sweden should participate in what would later develop into the Thirty Years' War.

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

Niklas Lundengård

Uppsala's nightlife has something for all ages and all tastes. Unwind after work at a relaxing lounge bar, or why not try new beers and innovative drinks at one of the many bars. You might also enjoy one of the stimulating and good-value dishes on offer at a tavern, dancing to the sounds of talented DJs, or listening to a live band in historic surroundings. The choice is yours.

Flustret

This long-established restaurant, beautifully situated by Svandammen and the City Park, has been enjoyed since the 1840s. Even today it attracts people of all ages for dancing, entertainment, food, and a refreshing drink. The restaurant features outdoor seating overlooking the City Park, while there are two dance floors, a nightclub and DJ, as well as after work events, among other things. It's also possible to reserve a table in the lounge.

SHOPPING

Niklas Lundengård / Destination Uppsala

Uppsala is a lively shopping city. There is a nice mix of modern malls, specialty shops, cafés and restaurants. Shop, have a coffee or just enjoy the pulse of the city and the beautiful Uppsala surroundings.

You can take a walk among the charming shops in the cobblestone cultural district around the Fyris River and St. Erik's Square, or along the popular pedestrian street where most of the city's fashionable malls and chain stores are located. If you continue under the railroad tracks, you will find small shops and the old Godsmagasinet, a former goods warehouse that now serves as a popular design and art gallery.

The English Bookshop

Sometimes you just feel the need to escape the world and what other way to do that is to emerge yourself in the worlds of book. There is a perfect place for you in Uppsala to get the book you need and deserve. The English Bookshop sells, you probably guessed it, an enormous variety of English books.

Did you not find the book that you and your craving for literature was looking for? No problem. The shop will happily order the books that you want, that's what we call service.

Flea Markets

Who is not familiar with a flea market and their bargains of second hand goods? Uppsala is known for their many flea markets which sell a variety of goods, such as antique, furniture, clothes and toys.

One of the most known flea markets is the one located on Vaksala Torg, on every Saturday. They are mostly focused on antiques with professional dealers who offer a good bargain. In Fyrispark you can find a selection of clothes and items for children. In the summer it turns into a popular car boot sale.

Forumgallerian

If you are interested in shopping with a historical twist, look no further. Forumgallerian was the first shopping mall in Uppsala and has been around for 64 years.. and counting. The mall exists out of 21 design and clothing shops and you can pick between five cafés and restaurants.

The name of the mall changed in the 70s in to 'Domus', but after a decade the city decided to change it again. Why you may ask, the residents of Uppsala refused to acknowledge the new name. Now, that's called loyalty.

Passport/Visa

Sweden can be visited visa-free for up to 90 days by citizens of Australia, New Zealand, Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, Malaysia, Israel, UAE and most countries in America. If you are unsure whether or not you need to apply for a visa, we recommend contacting the embassy or consulate in your country. International (non-Schengen) travelers need a passport that is valid for at least 3 months after the end of their intended trip in order to enter the Schengen zone. Citizens of Schengen countries can travel without a passport, but must have a valid ID with them during their stay.

Airport

Stockholm-Arlanda airport is the biggest airport in Sweden and an important hub for Uppsala. The journey to and from Uppsala and airport takes only 18 minutes.

There are several ways to transport to and from the airport:

Train - The SL's commuter trains just takes 18 minutes to Uppsala. It departs from Arlanda central Station in SkyCity, which is located between Terminal 4 and 5. You can buy your tickets from the normal SL and UL sales points or at Arlanda Central station. (www.ul.se/en / www.sl.se/en)

Airport coach - The public transport company Upplands Lokaltrafik (UL) runs the route 801 between Uppsala and Arlanda. They depart twice an hour between 3am and 12 midnight. Tickets can be purchased at Arlanda Visitor Centre in Terminal 5 or any other information desks in Terminal 2 and 4. There are also self-service ticket machines at the stops at Terminal 2, 4 and 5. Another option to buy your ticket is when boarding the bus, but they only accept card. There are night buses running between the airport and Uppsala (bus 593). For timetable and more information visit SL's website. (www.sl.se)

Taxi - Taxi stands are located directly outside all terminals. All taxis here have an agreement with Stockholm Arlanda Airport. You can contact a taxi rank officer if you have any questions.

Rental cars - Most of the car rental offices are situated at Arlanda's car rental area. You can rent cars at Avis, Budget, Europcar, Hertz and Sixt. For more information of the location, see website below.

Best time to Visit

Mild summers and cold winters, Uppsala can be visited throughout the year depending what you are looking for. Spring is the time when the city bursts into life but there can be high levels of pollen so if you suffer from hay fever make sure to take your medicine. The summer months starts from May and the maximum temperature rarely goes over 30° in June, July and August. Uppsala is a wonderful city to visit during spring and summer when the flowers bloom and the birds are chirping smoothly. Winter months are between late November and late March when the average temperatures are between -2°C and -4°C. Uppsala is a delightful place to visit during this period and there are plenty of winter activities to choose from like skiing, skating or jig-fishing. During Christmas time (November and December) there are Christmas markets, Christmas buffets and celebration of Sankta

Lucia to enjoy.

Public Transport

The city centre is compact making it easy to walk around and very bicycle-friendly too. You can rent a bike and just follow the manicured bike paths.

Uppland's regional buses UL (Upplands Lokaltrafik) is the main public transport services in Uppsala county. They are running the local city buses in Uppsala, the yellow regional buses and the Upptåget train system including SL-pendeln. If you are visiting for an event and conference, UL provides a flexible visitor pass that gives unlimited travel throughout the county and Uppsala city for the duration of your stay plus to and from the Arlanda airport. UL also offers single and 24h tickets as well as 30-day tickets. There are many different ways to buy your tickets for example through UL mobile app (a smart travel tool), through a UL Card (where you load your Travel Funds) or you can just buy tickets from the ticket machines at all major transport hubs. You can also pay when boarding the bus or train with VISA or MasterCard.

The UL Centre is located in Uppsala central station where you can get information and help regarding tickets and transport.
