gabo / Shutterstock.com

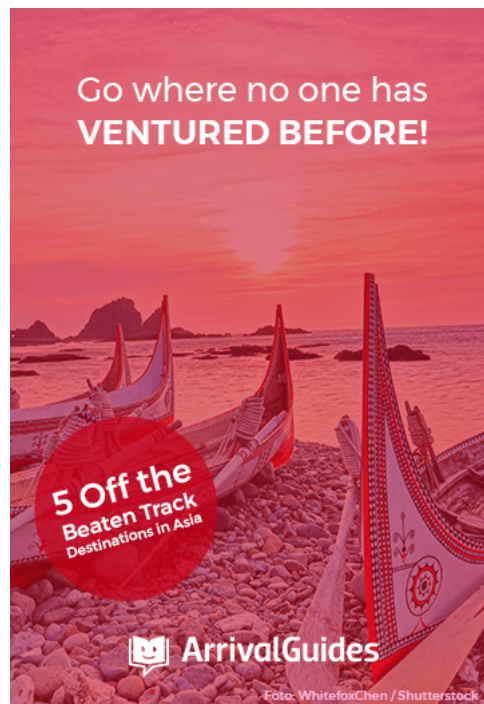

Having survived almost three decades of conflict and division, Belfast is now emerging from its chrysalis with a newfound freshness and vibrancy. Carrying a deep sense of its history, yet boldly striding into the future, Belfast is an exciting juxtaposition of old and new. Stroll by the River Lagan and see the birthplace of the infamous Titanic, visit the famous political murals in a black taxi or kick back with a traditional music session in one of this lively city's beautifully preserved old pubs.

THE CITY

Benjamin B / Shutterstock.com

Belfast is the capital of Northern Ireland. Its name originates from the Irish Béal Feirste, or the mouth of the Farset, the river on which the city was built and has now been superseded by the River Lagan. Belfast saw the worst of the Troubles in Northern Ireland, and since their start in 1969, news of violence and disruption marred the city's image as a tourist destination.

Since the 1997 cease-fire and the Good Friday agreement, however, Belfast is making up for lost time. With the help of massive investment, the city has undergone a remarkable transformation, and now has a booming economy and high employment rates. The River Lagan has been cleaned up and inner city areas, such as the Cathedral Quarter, have been regenerated, attracting new restaurants, hotels, shopping areas and cafés.

Belfast was once home to C.S.Lewis, author of the Chronicles of Narnia. Maybe this is where he found his inspiration? The famous musician Van Morrison also grew up in Belfast and music is indeed an important part of this city's social scene, with bands often performing at the Odyssey Arena or the Belfast Waterfront.

The numerous Victorian buildings of the city have been juxtaposed with impressive 20th-century architecture, so creating a sense of progress and change. With its sights set on the future, Belfast has become a vibrant, friendly and exciting city, waiting to be discovered in new ways.

DO & SEE

Leonid Andronov / Shutterstock.com

There's no shortage of activities and things to do in Belfast, everything from fascinating tours, cultural escapes, scientific exhibitions and historical buildings, can be explored here. Some of the better known attractions include St Anne's Cathedral, Belfast Castle, the Titanic museum and Belfast Zoo. There are also some hidden treasures that should not be missed like Belfast's own version of Willy Wonka's chocolate factory called the Aunt Sandra's Candy Factory, or boat tours along the Lagan. There is great mix of things to do, and people keep coming back time and again once they understand just how much the city has to offer.

Titanic Museum

This is your chance to learn everything about the legendary Titanic. Here you will find nine galleries featuring mind-blowing exhibitions and covering fascinating details of the fitting of the ship, the maiden voyage, the sinking of the ship and all that happened after. Even the building itself is a sight for sore eyes.

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

Paul Kavanagh / Shutterstock.com

Belfast is awash with slick new bars, as well as plenty of old-style pubs, many with traditional music sessions several nights of the week, as well as DJ-nights at weekends. Remember that pubs usually close around 11.30 pm, so make sure to start your night out pretty early.

The club scene is vibrant and top-quality live music can be found at several venues throughout the city. Late-night action really kicks off south of the centre around the Golden Mile, Queen's Quarter and Lisburn Road.

Belfast International Airport

Belfast International Airport is located approximately 20 minutes from the city centre and you have different options to choose from when deciding on the best way to get here.

Car hire agents like Hertz and Europcar are located right in the terminal building.

Buses run between the airport and the city centre roughly every 20 minutes and the journey takes about 30-40 minutes.

Taxis are also available outside the terminal building. The International Airport Taxi Company, for example, is available every day, all day.

George Best Belfast City Airport

Belfast City Airport is located to the east of the city centre, about a 5 minute drive from the centre. You will find car hire companies at the airport, but other ways of reaching the city are available too.

Trains run every half an hour during the day between Sydenham Station, near the airport, and the central train station in Belfast.

The Airport Express 600 takes you to the city centre and leaves every 20 minutes, but you can also take Metrobus number 3 or The Airporter. www.translink.co.uk

Finally, you can also reach the city centre by taxis, which leave from outside the terminal building.

Passport / Visa

Citizens of the European Union member-states, Norway, Liechtenstein, Iceland, Switzerland, and Overseas Countries and Territories (OCT) only require a valid passport to enter the UK. Residents of a further 10 countries do not require entry visas for stays under 6 months: the USA, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Japan, Singapore, South Korea, South Africa, Hong Kong, and Malaysia. Nationals of some further countries do not require a visa, but need to hold an entry certificate. Use the UK Government website to check for specific requirements: www.gov.uk/check-uk-visa

Best Time to Visit

April to September / October is the best time to visit Belfast. Be prepared for some wind and rain, but there are also adequate sunny days, especially in the summer. Try to avoid the two weeks around the 12th of July: many people have their holidays during the period when the traditional Protestant marches take place.
