Baltimore is situated along the shores of the vast Chesapeake Bay nearly 200 miles inland from the Atlantic Ocean. Since the 1600s, Baltimore waterways have given passage to ships carrying commercial cargo and new citizens - making it the second most popular point of entry for immigrants next to Ellis Island. It is located approximately 35 miles northeast of Washington DC and 75 miles southwest of Philadelphia, PA. With hundreds of identified districts, Baltimore has sometimes been dubbed "a city of neighborhoods," but is more commonly known as "Charm City." Baltimoreans take pride in their city, boasting one of the most remarkable transformations in history, yet they continue to welcome and accommodate visitors with a desire to create small town intimacy and hospitality.

THE CITY

f11photo/Shutterstock.com

Named after Lord Baltimore, the first Proprietary Governor of the Province of Maryland, this colorful, diverse city is the state's largest and serves as its economic and cultural hub.

Baltimore is known for its beautiful harbor; quirky, distinct neighborhoods; unique museums and the world-renowned Johns Hopkins Hospital to the east and the University of Maryland Medical Center to the west. The city boasts a rich history from the ramparts of Fort McHenry National Monument and Historic Shrine, to the inspirational legends at the National Great Blacks In Wax Museum, to the largest collection of Civil War locomotives ever assembled at the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Museum.

If you want to fit in with the natives on your next trip to Baltimore you'll have to get an ear for the dialect they speak in many neighborhoods in "Bawlmer," as the locals call their city. The accent comes from the combination of Baltimore's English colonial settlers with influxes of Irish, German and European immigrants. It may help to know that locals call strangers "hon," no matter their gender or age.

DO & SEE

Jon Bilous/Shutterstock.com

Baltimore is not so much a place as an experience. And after close to 300 years of history, this city can deliver more fun-filled family days (and romantic evenings) to make any vacation one you'll remember forever.

There truly is something for everyone; tour any of the great historic sites, museums and African-American heritage sites, attend professional sporting events (Baltimore Orioles, Baltimore Ravens and horse-racing at Pimlico), enjoy unique restaurants, shopping and much more. The beautiful waterfront at Inner Harbor, one of the major seaports in the United States since the 1700s, is one of the most photographed and visited areas of the city.

From historic places and harbor cruises to family friendly attractions and fabulous neighborhoods, Charm City is one of the top tourist destinations in the United States

National Great Blacks In Wax Museum

America's first wax museum of African American history and culture features more than 100 life-size and life-like wax figures. The National Great Blacks In Wax Museum is among the nation's most dynamic cultural and educational institutions. Primarily, the presentation of highlighting historical and contemporary personalities of African ancestry defines its uniqueness.

BWI Thurgood Marshall Airport

The BWI Thurgood Marshall Airport is located about a half-hour drive south of downtown Baltimore and about 35 miles north of Washington D.C. You can take public transportation, shuttles or taxis between the airport and the City of Baltimore.

Parking

There are several parking options at BWI. The hourly garage is attached to the terminal. The cheapest parking option is the long-term lot located on Aviation Boulevard.

Light Rail

The Light Rail Service is provided by the Maryland Transit Administration (MTA) to and from BWI Marshall Airport. Light Rail service is available to downtown Baltimore, Timonium and Hunt Valley from BWI Marshall Airport. To go to Penn Station, exit the train at Mt. Royal Avenue and take the Penn Station Light Rail. There is only one fare for both trains at $1.60 each way. The BWI Marshall Light Rail Station is located immediately outside the lower level of the terminal building, adjacent to Concourse E. For schedules, call 410-539-5000 or go to mta.maryland.gov/light-rail.

Car Rental

BWI Marshall Airport has opened a spacious rental car facility providing one-stop rental car shopping for our customers. The facility is located at Stoney Run Road and New Ridge Road. Free shuttle service carries customers to and from the airport approximately every 10 minutes. Passengers arriving on flights should take the free shuttle from the lower level terminal. When returning a vehicle, look for highway directional signs to the facility. The Car Rental Facility is located at 7432 New Ridge Road in Hanover.

Bus Services

MTA offers bus service on the #17 bus from BWI Marshall Airport connecting to Parkway Center, Arundel Mills Mall, Airport 100 Park and the Patapsco Light Rail Stop. MTA also offers weekday peak service on the #99 bus from BWI Marshall Airport connecting to UMBC, CCBC Catonsville, Bloomsbury & Frederick, Rolling & Security Blvd., Liberty & Milford Mill and the Old Court Metro Subway Station. For fares, schedules and other MTA information, call 410-539-5000 or visit mta.maryland.gov.

Courtesy Shuttles

In order to manage vehicle traffic on the terminal roadway, BWI Marshall Airport has created specific pick-up zones for hotel shuttles and off-airport parking shuttles. Hotel and off-airport parking shuttles will pick-up passengers at the designated zones only. Private vehicles are restricted from these off-airport pick-up zones. Zones 1 and 3 are assigned for hotel shuttles. Zone 2 is designated for off-airport parking shuttles. Zone 4 will be used by both hotels and off-airport parking companies.
