LMspencer/Shutterstock.com

Located at the southern tip of the Baja California peninsula, the once-remote area of Los Cabos has transformed itself into an international resort destination. Many visitors come for the stunning beaches and what is known as the Corridor, a 33 kilometer stretch of spectacular coastline that runs between the twin towns of Cabo San Lucas and San Jose del Cabo. Both towns have been known to captivate and charm travelers from all over the world, and host an array of internationally renowned events, including the Bisbee Black and Blue Marlin tournament and the SCORE Baja 1000 off-road race.

THE CITY

gary718/Shutterstock.com

The quaint town of San Jose del Cabo offers tranquility and old Mexican charm. It is also the best place to shop for souvenirs. Even if you don't need anything, do browse the local gift shops and art galleries.

A visit to at least one of the exquisite gourmet restaurants is also highly recommended.

The glitzier Cabo San Lucas (widely known as the "Cabo" ) tends to attract a younger crowd and it is famous for its abundant nightlife. Here, in the southern peninsula, you will also find some of the most extraordinary marine sanctuaries.

DO & SEE

ocophoto/Shutterstock.com

Los Cabos' breathtaking nature makes outdoor activities a major draw. The most popular pastime, other than golfing and shopping, is spending time offshore, where many visitors opt for sport fishing or cruising. For those who prefer staying on land, a trip to the outlying desert region, which is one of the largest and best preserved in Mexico, is recommended.

Cabo del Sol Golf Club

This exquisite oceanfront golf club, often referred to as "The Pebble Beach of Baja", was designed by Jack Nicklaus and has been named one of the top 100 golf courses in the world by Golf Magazine. It's been awarded with the title of the best golf course in the world and also hosts the PGA Senior Slam tournament.

More Info: As no taxi meters are used, always negotiate the price before leaving the airport.

Best Time to Visit

If you are not part of the spring break crowd or want to avoid tourists, the best time to visit is from May to June. The tourists who come looking for the sun during the winter will be gone, and the ones who want to spend their time here during the summer holidays have yet to hit. During the summer time, from July till September, it's hurricane season, and it's very hot and humid. If you are a fan of whale-watching, book your travel during December and March.

Passport / Visa

Mexico can be visited visa-free for up to 180 days by citizens of all European countries, USA, New Zealand, Japan, South-America, Japan, South-Korea and more. If you are unsure whether or not you need to apply for a visa, we recommend contacting the embassy or consulate in your country. All visitors who enter Mexico and travel farther than 20 kilometers and stay longer than 72 hours need to obtain the Forma Migratoria Multiple which you can present at the checkpoints of the country. This document can be obtained online at the price of 390 Mexican pesos.
